Upon the application of Charles McCaree, receiver of the Eby Drug company, the court authorized him to sell all of the personal property located at 120 North Market street at private sale at a sum not less than $3500.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Two divorce cases which were transferred from Judge Ambler's court, were heard by Judge Harter yesterday and granted. Alice M. McFarren was given a divorce from Phares McFarren on the charge of habitual drunkenness for three years, gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Thomas C. Davis, of Massillon. A divorce was granted Cora McCoy from J. F. McCoy on the grounds of extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty. She was represented by Attorney William A. Roach, of Alliance.

SEEKS TO ENJOIN BOARD.

The case of George A. Marks vs. Gulling et al. was started yesterday in court room No. 2, Judge Ambler presiding. The plaintiff seeks to have a restraining order made a temporary injunction which would enjoin the board of education of Nimishillen township from proceeding with the erection of a new high school building near Harrisburg. The plaintiff's evidence was submitted yesterday afternoon and the defense will be heard this morning. It is claimed by the plaintiff that the location chosen by the board is not suitable to one-half of the pupils who would be forced to attend, many of which would be compelled to go seven or eight miles. Attorney W. E. Barsman, of Louisville, and Judge Fawcett, of Canton, represent the plaintiff while the side of the board of education is being looked after by Prosecuting Attorney Upham and Judge Augst.
